FREQUENTLY ASKED T-6 QUESTIONS

Do I actually get to fly the T-6? Yes! Regardless of your experience, once airborne you will be doing the flying. Remember. The T-6 was designed as a trainer. An experienced flight instructor will be in the back seat with a full set of controls. He will handle the taxiing, take-off and landing but you get to do the rest with some coaching from your instructor

What if I'm a pilot? If you're a pilot, you can log your time in the T-6 in your logbook. If you're interested in complete flight training in the T-6, let us know.

What is the cost to fly? An incredible adventure which includes an hour of aerobatic instruction in the T-6 is $920. Shorter flights, and multi-flight training packages are available. Photos and video are available day of flight for an added cost. Contact Incredible Adventures for details.

When can I fly? T-6 training flights may be scheduled Monday-Saturday.

SOUTH CAROLINA WARBIRDS GENERAL INFORMATION

Where are T-6 flights available? Flights are offered in partnership with a vintage flight school based in Ninety-Six, South Carolina. Flights take off from nearby Greenwood County Airport (GRD).

What are the closest major airports? The closest major airports are Greenville-Spartanburg (GSP), Columbia (CAE) and Augusta (AGS). All are within a 90 minute drive.

What should I wear for my flight training adventure? Dress in comfortable casual clothes. Please wear sturdy soled, closed toe shoes. No sandals or flip flops are permitted for safety reasons. Tennis shoes would be fine. A shirt with a collar will be more comfortable so the harness straps do not rub on your neck. Make sure you have a pair of sunglasses with you also.

Is flying a warbird dangerous? Yes. Our partners at Warbird Adventures operate flights according to strict FAA safety standards, but flying in ex-military aircraft is inherently dangerous. You will be required to sign a Release of Liability and assume all risks.
